

Mt. Ashland Youth Summer Service Program 2011

- ❖ Youth Summer Service offers 3 four-day program sessions. The program is open to youth entering the 8th or 9th grade in the fall of 2011. The program is free of charge, and we provide transportation from Medford and Ashland. Participants earn community service hours and a discounted $175 season pass.
- ❖ YSSP application deadline is Thursday, May 26, 2011.
- ❖ Return the completed application to PO Box 220, Ashland, OR 97520, or drop it off at the Mt. Ashland business office at 693 Washington St., Ashland. For more information call program coordinator Brian Tekulve at (541) 482-2897 or email btekulve@mtashland.com.
- ❖ Each session of the program is limited to 12 youth. Participants are chosen based on the quality of their application, references and availability. All participants must attend a pre-program orientation meeting.

-----Please answer the following questions (feel free to continue on a separate sheet of paper):-----

Why do you want to participate in the Youth Summer Service Program?

Describe one of your favorite school, sport, club, or community activities. How this activity has helped improve your character?

What does "taking personal responsibility" mean to you?

What would you do to help insure the success of this year's program?

The above statements are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. If selected for the Youth Summer Service Program I will participate to the best of my abilities, obey all rules and guidelines of the program, and be the best representative of Mt. Ashland that I possibly can.

Youth Summer Service Program References

Provide two adult references who have worked with you at school, in sports, church, club or community organization (not family members). These references are a required part of our selection process.

Name of applicant: _____

Name of reference: _____ (you may email reference to btekulve@mtashland.com)

Email or phone number for follow-up questions: _____

How do you know the applicant? _____

The Youth Summer Service program is four days, mostly outdoors, working with others, exercising and learning about the Mt. Ashland environment. How do you think the applicant would perform in this situation?

He/she will be teamed with other youth from throughout the local area. Do you think she/he would enjoy this?

This program requires a positive attitude, respect for others and listening skills. What can you tell us about the applicant in these areas?
